ADMINISTRATION

The quality of a school's education is directly dependent upon those people who are charged with its administration. The administrator determines the school's educational status, be it inferior or superior.

The Board of Education with its president, Mrs. George Wilson, has devoted many hours to school problems. Our principal, Mr. Robert O. Starr, has guided the educational course of Lyndonville Central School. Mr. Donald Herry, vice principal, has patiently helped the students in times of indecision. Mr. Earl Warner, principal of the Elementary School, has and will continue to shape the characters of those students who will take our place in the future.

Mrs. Custer and Mrs. Baker, the school secretaries, have fulfilled the responsibilities of their vitally important positions. The bus drivers have brought us safely to school each day; the cafeteria workers prepared healthy and nutritious meals; the custodians have kept the buildings warm, clean, and pleasant. To all these people we wish to express our sincere gratitude.

Our deepest thanks, however, go to these patient, understanding and dedicated individuals with whom we spent most of our time — the teachers. As we prepare to leave school, we are already beginning to realize how much they have done for us.

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of 1959 made its debut in 1947 as the first kindergarten in Lyndonville. Entering the small brick school house which we were to become so familiar with that year, we were greeted by our teacher, Mrs. Francis Postle. With this our formal education began. Of the original 38 who came together that September of 1947, only eighteen have remained to graduate. They are Keith Bane, Richard Fisk, Robert Harrold, Lawrence Pratt, Lawrence Sanderson, Randall Bane, Jereld Cooper, Mary Byerly, Margo Cooper, Sue Hey, Virginia Hoffman, Joyce Huntington, Diane Johnson, Joyce Martin, Pamela Postle, Nancy Pritchard, Carolyn Rowley, and Dianne Zanow.

Our first year successfully completed, we were promoted to the first grade to be guided by Miss Lucille Artlip. As we looked around we noticed that John Sawyer, William Willis and Cynthia Krenning had been added to our roll. Of this year we recall most vividly "those trips to the closet".

Moving ever forward we found the necessity to divide our growing class into two sections for our second grade year. Our teachers this year were Mrs. Etta Miller and Mrs. Harriet Schnackel. New members this year included Edward Costich and Mildred Dix.

The following year Mrs. Lillian Peters and Miss Elinore Patten greeted forty-four students as we now became third graders. Looking back we remember the happy times spent "galloping" behind the Town Hall, where we passed the year because of a shortage of facilities. John Bucolo, David McCargar and Laura Palmer joined us this year.

On we went to the fourth grade to be under the guidance of Miss Helen Lienhart and Miss Ann Dooley. This year half our class was back in the same brick school house we had known as kindergarten, and the other half was in the Methodist Church. Roger Pritchard and Shirley Fitchlee were added to our number as we pressed onward to our intended goal, which at this time seemed so distant.

Mrs. Marjorie Cooper Poler and Miss Jean Straub had to manage fifty-two pupils as we passed into our fifth year of academic endeavor. At this point we began to realize our opponent as we sought, seemingly in vain, to master those impossible problems with long division. Peter Makowski and J. Roy Rogers joined the class of '59 that year and John Sawyer left for another school.

As we passed into the sixth grade we found ourselves in the new elementary school under the leadership of Miss Marjorie Dunham and Mr. Earl Warner. Mike Zapf joined our class this year and it was at this time that our awareness of the opposite sex first developed as we learned that popular new game known as "spin the bottle".

Eagerly we anticipated seventh grade. When our day would be divided into periods. We were at long last in junior high school. Our homeroom teachers this year were Mr. Horace Phillips and Mr. Paul Ryan. Along with the other changes this year brought, we sent our first representatives to Student Council. They were Carolyn Rowley and Cynthia Krenning.

Approaching our eighth year we suddenly came to the realization that this year would be terminated by our first regents. Keeping this in mind we set out under the supervision of our homeroom teachers, Mrs. Winifred Byerly and Mr. William Greene. Joining the class this year were Gloria Helsdon, Shirley Neuman, Shirley Gilbert, and Dorothy Taylor. Student Council representatives were Dianne Zanow and Cynthia Krenning.

Having successfully passed our first regents we looked forward eagerly to our first year of high school. With much enthusiasm we set forth in a whirl of extra-curricular activities and gained much enjoyment from "setting" our classmates' lockers. Miss Margaret Grant and Mr. Elliott Peterson constituted our freshman homeroom teachers while Randy Bane and Mildred Dix represented our class in the Student Council. As freshmen we also elected class officers, who were Keith Bane, president; Michael Zapf, vice president; and Joyce Martin, secretary-treasurer.

As sophomores we were guided by our homeroom teachers Mrs. Winifred Byerly and Miss Florence O'Brien. This year the officers representing our class were president Randy Bane, vice president Shirley Fitchlee, secretary Dianne Zanow, and treasurer Sue Hey. Michael Zapf and Mildred Dix were our Student Council representatives. Walter Zirbes join the class roll making now a total of fifty-nine.

Now juniors, we suddenly realized that graduation lay only around the next corner, so we set about fervidly on our money making campaign. Under the guidance of our advisors, Mr. William Dinger and Miss Florence O'Brien we sold candy, Christmas cards and refreshments at basketball and football games. In February of that year, the long awaited day arrived when we received our junior rings. The annual Junior Prom brought this eleventh year to close as we spent "An Evening in Paris". Mike Zapf and Cynthia Krenning presided as king and queen for this gala affair. Class officers were: Carolyn Rowley, president; Dianne Zanow, vice president; Joyce Martin, secretary; and Sue Hey, treasurer.

Our twelfth year opened as we presented the annual senior play, this year entitled, "Boys About Bobbette." This final year proved the busiest year of all as we set out on the last lap of our secondary education. With the help of our capable advisors we undertook our projects for the year, including suppers, dances, selling taffy and yearbook sponsorships. Marsha Stenenson joined our ranks in this last important year making a total of thirty-six to graduate.

Besides all these activities we found a necessity to spend some time on school work as Mr. Bannister established the quiz system in Chemistry and Mr. Szemraj and Mrs. Warner decided to take advantage of the detention bus. With Dianne Zanow as president, Roger Pritchard as vice-president, Joyce Martin as secretary and Sue Hey as treasurer we passed through this final year. Although sad at the thoughts of leaving we are anticipating the coming years eagerly, as the Class of '59 bids a fond adieu to our years at Lyndonville Central School.

We the Juniors of Mr. Szemraj's homeroom have had a very busy year trying to raise the money for the all-important Senior trip. Our first big business venture was the selling of candy and hot dogs at the Canning Factory, Youth Center, and during all sporting events. We were constantly trying new ideas — anything to swell the treasury.

In December we ordered our class rings and then waited with anxiety and anticipation until April for their arrival. We thought they would never get here.

In February we sponsored a "Chance Dance". Much to our delight, it was very successful, giving us a little more confidence for our biggest venture of the year, our Junior Prom.

We certainly put our "patriotic" foot forward when we chose a Hawaiian theme for the big affair.

A picnic with the Seniors where reminiscences were shared and rivalries forgotten brought the year to a close.

If it were not for the advice and help given us by our advisors, Mrs. Kimi and Mr. Hartsen, we doubt very much whether these ventures would have been successful. To them each and every one of us extends his sincerest expression of gratitude.

The Sophomores of Mrs. Bradley's and Mr. Warden's homerooms were under the able counseling of Mrs. Minott and Mr. Caldwell.

Margaret Coster and Steve Peters represented the class in the Student Council. The Sophs were members of various organizations such as Press Club, F. F. A., and Latin Club.

The Sophomores also boasted newsworthy athletes and cheerleaders. They were proud of the sportsmanship which their representatives exemplified on the baseball field, gridiron, and gymnasium floor.

The Sophomores' biggest project of the year, to help increase their funds for the senior trip, was a car-wash in October of 1958. The whole class exerted themselves in this undertaking and it proved to be very successful. Bake sales also were held by the Sophs throughout the year.

With pleasurable memories of a successful year, the sophomores now look forward to their next two years in high school, their junior rings and senior diplomas.

JUNIOR HIGH CLASSES

The seventh grades had a very lively year in the high school building. They enjoyed the new privileges and responsibilities. The local government and its leaders provide an interesting program for the seventh grades. The students took a trip to the Albion Court House in connection with their work. Randy Baker and Linda Lartz were representatives in the Student Council.

One of the most memorable events in the eighth grades was the reception of the Homeroom Scholarship Award by Mr. Caldwell's class. They were very proud of this accomplishment. Wally Mapes and Willard Applin represented the eighth grades in the Student Council.

The Freshman class elected Joan Martin as their president and Mr. Little and Mrs. Warner acted as advisors. Rick Parsons and Neil Woodworth were elected for Student Council. We held a bake sale which went off quite well. We contributed players for football and basketball. Some of the Freshmen joined the Latin Club. We all were proud of the fine job the Freshman cheerleaders did.

The Junior High classes had another successful year. New activities and experiences were thoroughly enjoyed. We are all looking forward to next year and whatever it may bring.

JAMES BROWN

ROBERT MERLIN

In Memoriam

During this school year we have been saddened by the loss of two members of our student body. James Brown was a victim of leukemia and Robert Merlin lost his life in a highway accident. Both boys will be long remembered by their teachers, classmates, and friends. The staff of the "Echo" extends its deepest sympathy to their families and friends.

Our Student Council meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month at which time we conduct our meetings according to the Roberts Rules of Order.

The Student Council has done many interesting things this year. Among these was the planting of crocus bulbs along both sides of the front walk from the street to the flagpole. Each child and teacher had the opportunity to plant at least one bulb.

This year we purchased new belts and badges for the hall monitors. The badge was designed by one of our pupils and reproduced by a commercial emblem company.

We will again purchase approximately $100.00 worth of pictures for the classrooms as part of our campaign to beautify our school.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

This year, as usual, most of our pupils are taking part in some school activity. The kindergarten traveled by bus to Albion to see Santa Claus. The second grade groups visited the Lyndonville Canning Company and the water purification station at the lake. Again this year, the third grades went to the Buffalo Zoo. The fourth grades visited the General Mills Bakery in Rochester. The fifth grades traveled to Fort Niagara and the sixth grades visited the Buffalo Museum of Science. We gathered information to help us in our school work from these excursions.

Students from the sixth grades have been helping Mrs. Billingsley in the library and acting as Safety Patrol members. Hall monitors who come from the upper elementary grades, help in our Safety Program by controlling pupil traffic in the halls and helping the younger children remove their overshoes during winter weather. They also assist strangers by showing them where to go. Flag monitors in grades 4, 5, and 6, raise and lower the flag every morning and night.

Under Mr. Benedict's direction, the fifth grades presented the Christmas Operetta "Hansel and Gretel" by Engelbert Humperdinck.

5. The Thursday parties were discontinued.
6. Mr. Szemraj didn't blush.

Sponsors

The following is a roster of those people who made this book possible. These individuals complied with a procedure new to the "Echo." They agreed to having their names placed in a list of many names which might tend to make them unnoticed in reference to advertising. However, the subsequent cut in the number of pages would allow the "Echo" to have a hard cover and several other heretofore too costly embellishments. These, our sponsors, agreed to let the students of Lyndonville have a finer yearbook at the cost of their own previous advertising space. The Senior Class of 1959 would like to express its deepest thanks for the very helpful cooperation of the "Echo" sponsors.

CHORUS

Director - - - - - MR. CHARLES BENEDICT

As the curtain went up on the 1958-59 school year at L. C. S. the chorus, under the direction of Mr. Charles Benedict, was assigned robes and practicing began.

Much hard work and determination were put forth and a successful performance was turned out during the Christmas assembly.

In February sixteen members of the chorus were chosen to take part in County Chorus and participate in the All County Music Festival held at Lyndonville this year. All who participated worked hard to make the program a success. Those who saw the program agreed the effort was not in vain.

An eight voice group was begun in March, to sing madrigals. This octet represented the advance talent of the Chorus. This group first appeared with the Chorus in the Annual Spring Concert, held in May. This group will continue to perform in the future.

The final performance of the chorus this year was during the Baccalaureate program.

Perhaps the Seniors of '59, singing their last notes with the chorus, regretted just a little leaving the chorus of Lyndonville Central.

Our first activity was playing at the football games. We were invited to take part in the Santa Claus Parade in Medina, in November, but weather conditions were unfavorable, much to our regret. The band and vocal group provided the entertainment for a very enjoyable program at our Christmas assembly.

The highlight event of the year came in March, when our school entertained the Orleans County Band and Choir, presenting the fourth annual All County Music Festival on March 13 and 14. The band consisted of 110 members from Medina, Albion, Holley, Kendall and Lyndonville schools. Our guest conductor was Evan Ballinger, director of instrumental music at Irondequoit Central School. Some of the players formed a dance band and played for dancing in the elementary school after the program.

The Elementary School Junior Band continues to grow each year and helps to strengthen the Senior Band.

The annual Spring Concert presented May 1st was another successful activity. The band heads the annual Memorial Day Parade every year.

We appreciate and anticipate support from our community in the future.

The yearbook staff and advisors feel that they can be reasonably proud, in the ultimate achievement of their year's work. Although at many times it looked as if the "Echo" would never go to press, it finally reached the point, however late, when all the articles had been handed in, checked and rechecked, typed and sent on their way to the printer. The pictures had been taken and sent to the engraver and the sponsorship drive completed. The only things remaining were the construction of the dummy yearbook and an "Echo" sale campaign.

With these tasks completed the staff had a short period of anticipation to endure before the finished product was returned to the school. After several weeks of waiting, the boxes of 1959 "Echoes" arrived. With feverish hope and optimism they were opened and the top book removed.

The product of our efforts is in your hands. We, the staff and advisors, hope you will feel as much pride in this book as your memento as we felt in presenting it to you for that purpose.

The Student Council, the student governing body of Lyndonville Central School, planned and promoted the program for all the co-curricular activities. The Council undertook a number of projects. Two of the most important were the annual CARE and UNICEF drives. These projects were quite successful.

A new undertaking of the Council was the sponsorship of a Foreign Student Exchange Program. This was planned jointly with the Parent-Teacher Association. The Council plans to help the PTA in its fund-raising drives to sponsor this student.

As in the past, the Student Council will supervise the individual student picture program. Although it has been the rule for the pictures to be black and white, the Council will try something new by offering colored photos next year.

Constantly striving to reduce inter-class friction and to provide a balanced schedule of activities, the Council has proved itself an invaluable aid to the efficient administration of the school program.

During the fourth year of the Latin Club, under the able leadership of Mrs. Byerly, much was accomplished toward our goal of learning more of Roman customs and appreciation of their way of life.

During December, the annual Saturnalia was held. This memorable experience consisted of a meal served by the slaves to their respective masters and entertainment that was, naturally, supplied by the versatile bondsmen.

The year's activity of the S. P. Q. R. was enriched when twenty members attended the annual convention of the Central Western Zone Federation of the Junior Classical League at Fairport, N. Y. Shirley Fitchlee served as recording secretary of the zone federation for the year 1958-1959. Our club was honored by the election of Judy Bocolo as corresponding secretary to the federation for the year 1959-1960.

We are looking forward to the varied activities next year's Latin Club will pursue. The S. P. Q. R. is certainly becoming an indispensable part of our school's activities.

This year LeRoy Green received the Empire Farmer Degree and also won the American Agriculturist and Dekalb awards.

To start the 58-59 year we had the Green Hand Degree initiation for the Agriculture I boys. The Agriculture II boys were raised to Chapter Degree and also received their F. F. A. jackets. This included Paul Schuner, Ken Cooper, Lee Thiel, Bruce Rutherford, William Long and Larry Petrie.

For our main fund raising project we had a contest to see who would sell the most subscriptions to The Farm (quarterly) magazine. Paul Schuner won 1st prize, Ken Cooper 2nd prize and Larry Petrie 3rd prize. The club sold a total of 75 subscriptions. Another contest in which the members of our club participated was the Parliamentary Procedure contest. We won 3rd prize. A few of the other important contests participated in are Field and Forage, Crop Judging and Livestock Judging, in which Lynn Canham took 4th place in a field of twenty contestants.

The "Tiger's Roar" has had a successful year, thanks to the capable leadership of Miss Florence O'Brien and Mr. Edward Szemraj. The cooperation of the staff and their willingness to work are two of the reasons for our success.

The "Tiger's Roar" is a bimonthly publication. The Staff meets on Wednesday to discuss business and get assignments. The school paper was improved by the inclusion of sport quizzes, a girl's column and a lovelorn column.

After assignments are given, the reporters write and submit their articles to the newspaper advisor for correction. After they are proof-read, they are taken to the typists who type stencils and run them through the mimeograph machine. The final edition is ready to be assembled and sold during the fourth period at five cents a copy.

Reporters include: A. Allen, B. Balschmiter, M. Byerly, B. Chaffee, M. Cooper, E. Dunham, L. Goldsmith, S. Fitchlee, J. Hungerford, K. Martin, D. Meister, S. Neuman, M. Martin, S. Quintern, R. Rumble, B. Rutherford, P. Sevenski, M. Woodworth, B. Wright, and T. Zapf.

This year a Homemaking Club was organized for the first time in several years. The purpose of the club was two-fold. It was to provide an opportunity for vocational Homemaking girls to participate in craft projects they did not have time for in class and to plan some social functions for themselves.

The girls chose knitting and crocheting projects on which to work. Mrs. Byerly helped some of the girls to learn to crochet. Judy Rook helped some of the girls to learn to knit.

At Christmas time the club undertook a service project for the school. They decorated the bulletin boards both upstairs and down, using Christmas ideas. This gave our school a more festive air at that time.

In the spring the club sent for corsage-making materials from which they made themselves corsages and earrings of artificial flowers. The girls in the club plan some social good times for the group. These include dining out at a nice restaurant and a picnic at the beach.

SENIOR PLAY

"A sure sign of an amateur production, they say, is a late curtain. The curtain rose on "Boys About Bobbette" precisely on time and correctly heralded the entertaining, workmanlike, and on a few occasions, nearly professional way in which the Lyndonville High School Seniors presented their annual play."

Thus began the introductory paragraph of the article reviewing our presentation of Albert Johnson's "Boys About Bobbette" as written by the editor of the local Enterprise.

The story of the play in general was centered around the antics and conflicts of Bobbette Braddock, a "dyed-in-the-wool" tomboy, her gang, the "dirty dozen", and Freida Fisher, a very obvious rival to Bobby.

To the backstage crew can be attributed the honor of having created one of the best stage sets ever constructed and decorated by Lyndonville students. Also contributing greatly to the ultimate merit of the production were the many supporting characters who, at times, threatened to "steal the show."

Perhaps the most prevalent recollection of the entire experience was the feeling of jubilant pride in our accomplishment, which we felt at the close of the curtain. The time and effort we had expended in presenting the Senior Play had well been worth while.

FOOTBALL

Coaches

MR. HARTSEN, MR. JOHNSON

With the arrival of fall, the shrill sound of a whistle could again be heard coming from the athletic field of L. C. S. Those who heard it knew that football practice was again in progress and that another team was being formed under the leadership of the coaches, Mr. Hartsen and Mr. Johnson.

Captained by Mike Zapf and Bob Harrold, the team, although hampered by serious injuries throughout the season, fought untiringly to gain victory. Although success did not favor the Tigers this year, the team played a commendable brand of football and it can be proud of itself. The final scores were as follows:

L. C. S. 13	Alexander 21	L. C. S. 13	Oakfield 27
L. C. S. 14	Corfu 0	L. C. S. 19	Elba 20

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach - - - - - MR. WARD JOHNSON

Under the expert eye of Coach Ward Johnson, the '58-'59 Tigers brought both success and fame to Lyndonville High. With an impressive 6-7 record and a record-breaking 79 points in a home game, the Tigers ended the most successful season in 12 years.

The starting five included Willie Long (211), Tom Zapf (136), Bob Harrold (95), Dan Taylor (71) and Bill Plummer (52). Many clutch baskets were added by Mike Zapf (18), Jim Thorpe (16) and Don Myhill (15) points. Also entering the scoring column were Doug Johnson and Eddie Woods each with 2 points.

Such a fine record would not have been possible without the increased school spirit and attendance both at home and away games.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach

MR. ARGANA

This past season has been a difficult season for Mr. Argana. Again he has been left with inexperienced players. Most of last year's team have either advanced to the Varsity or didn't come out for basketball.

Nevertheless, this year was a more encouraging one for the boys than last year. The victory over Alexander was the most exciting game of the season. There were many close games which could have gone either way. We are looking forward to an improved team for next year.

BASEBALL

Coach

MR. HARTSEN

As Lyndonville entered its 1958 baseball season, hopes were again high for another winning team. The team worked hard during practice and the pitching machine acquired during the previous season proved to be very beneficial.

Playing Albion for the first time in many years, the Tigers emerged victorious. Much to the delight of the student body and honor of the school, Willie Long pitched a "no-hit" "no-run" game against Kendall. That one will be long remembered. Lyndonville won its eighth league championship by defeating Wyoming and the baseball supremacy of the school was again established.

Despite the loss to Bolivar in the play-offs, the '58 team will be remembered for its overall sportsmanship and good performance.

CHEERLEADING AND GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

Coach

MRS. ARGANA

Six junior varsity and six varsity cheerleaders, who had been elected the preceding spring, combined their efforts and after much arduous practice began their season by cheering for the football team.

Basketball season rolled around and the J. V. cheerleaders, arrayed in new black jumpers and white blouses, gained much experience and helped the team greatly. The varsity, wearing black skirts and sweaters, helped to give the spirit needed to make this the best season in years.

By "giving their all" in pep assemblies and creating original stunts, songs and cheers, the cheerleaders seemed to raise school spirit and to obtain quality participation by the team.

This year, as in years gone by, the Senior high school girls enjoyed participating in basketball games. The shrieks that could be heard from the gym certainly testify to that. The sports program also included volleyball and badminton. Although the girls did not go to other schools for competition, they found plenty of it at home, playing in the spirit of good sportsmanship against their friends on opposite teams.

ALMA MATER

*You may range through all the rainbow
And love each separate hue;
You may praise the rosy sunrise
Or the evening skies so blue;
But the color of our high school
Due honor shall not lack,
While we can sing of Lyndonville,
And the Orange and the Black.*

*Thru four long years of high school
'Midst the scenes we love so well,
As the mystic charms to knowledge
We vainly seek to spell;
As we win athletic victories
On the baseball field or track
Still we work for dear old Lyndonville,
And the Orange and the Black.*

*When the cares of life o'er take us
Mingling fast our locks with gray,
Should our dearest hopes betray us
False fortunes fade away;
Still we banish care and sadness
As we turn our memories back,
And recall those days of gladness,
'Neath the Orange and the Black.*
